GOE ADVANCING---PREMIUM 114 1-2.

STOCK MARKET STILL WEAK.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES STRONG.

WALL STERET. }
FRIDAY, May 10-6 P. M. }
Another advance in flour has taken place, all grades being up from five to ten cents. Wheat is also better in price from three to five cents. Cotton remains the same.

GOLD-HIGHEST, 114%; LOWEST, 113%. The gold market is strong, with a slight advanc-ing tendency in the premium. The fluctuations for a week past, although the movement has been upward, have hardly been worthy of note; in fact, it has looked as if the dealers had screwed certain figures and fractions forming the premium to their counters, and had made up their minds to let them stay there. The opening price was 114, from which it fell to 113%, and then advanced to 114%. Not much money has been recently lost or won in the Gold Exchange. A change is needed in these hot and dusty days, if nothing more than for the sake of a change. The bears should settle the Alabama question in Wall street and knock gold down to 110, and not permit it to get above that for the balance of the summer.

MONEY MARKET. Money has been easier .to-day, and the rate of interest is down to five and six per cent. There is no evidence suffi-cient to warrant the belief, however, that it will remain in that condition for any great length of time. Money is now plenty in this market, bu a demand is soon expected from the West that will reduce the total very considerably.

MONEY MARKET IN OTHER CITIES, The condition of the Boston money market is thu referred to by the Journal of that city of Thursday afternoon:

The reports concerning the money situation are rather favorable. Call loans are certainly more easily attainable at the going rate, seven per cent. Some few of the banks are getting easier and working into a better position than they were on the last return day, which was certainly very needful if they intended to come up to the legal requirement. Some banks are yet hard pushed by their customers, and find it very difficult to hold back from discounting. These last do not see any improvement in the market.

In Cincinnati on the 5th inst., as we are informed by the fazzette the demand for money was quite.

by the Gazette, the demand for money was quite active, and in some quarters exceeded the incom from maturing paper, but as a rule the banks wer able to discount to the extent of the applications of depositors, although there were some exceptions and rather more good business paper than usu was thrown upon the open market. The applica tions for loans were confined to no one interest, bu appeared to be more generally distributed through all branches of trade than customary at this seaso of the year, and while the market could not b called stringent it was several degrees remove

From the Chicago papers of the 7th we learn tha From the Chicago papers of the 7th we learn that The money market was quiet and an easier feeling prevailed; the inquiry for loans was not so urgent and bankers generally reported the market easy. Borrowers experienced little difficulty in obtaining all the favors they desired. The inquiry was more equally distributed, lumber dealers, wholesale merchants and speculators in grain and provisions all making moderate requests. On the street there was only a fair business doing, as bankers were inclined to accept offerings more freely. The shipments of currency to the country were comparatively light, while the receipts were fair. THE SHARE MARKET.

There was nothing remarkable in the stock market to-day, except perhaps that Erie opened at 70 and ran down to 68, which were the highest and lowest figures; the sales having mostly been made on the fractions above 68. Nearly all the other stocks on the list exhibited weakness, and maintained with the greatest difficulty the lower quota-tions of yesterday. New York Central and Hudson River started at 97%, but did not fall below 98%; Pacific Mail reached 75%, the highest, and at no time got below 74%; the same may be said of Western Union; Northwestern fluctuated between 75 and 76: Lake Shore between 94 and 95: Ohio and Mississippi stuck at 46 and 46%; Boston, Hartford and sold up to 9%, and was about the only stock that struck above the highest price of yesterday; Union Pacific could not reach over 38%; Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central went down from 363 to 35%; Rock Island held very well between 111% and 111%; not much was done in St. Paul, which stood at 58%. A sale was made of Pacific Mail at 74, seller fifteen days. The following table compares the highest and lowest quotations of stocks to-day with those of yesterday :-

WIFE BUTCHERY.

Patrick Smith, of 139 Goerck street, arrived at his home about ten o'clock Thursday night, and after upbraiding his wife deliberately proceeded to dissect her, making no less than seven incisions in the body of the unfortunate woman. Luckily, he struck no vital part. He was taken before Justice Scott, at Essex Market Police Court, yesterday, and com-mitted to await the result of the injuries.

MEDICAL SCIENCE.

Annual Meeting of the American Medical Association at Philadelphia-Proposed Reforms-Shall Women Be Admitted to the Seciety ?- A New Yorker Receives the First Prize for the Best Essay.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 9, 1872. The delegates representing the American Medical Association, about three hundred in number, are now in session in this city. While the gentlemen comprising this delegation do not represent all classes of medicinal practice that have been developed the past quarter of a century they do re-present the best talent in the country, and among them may be mentioned the celebrated names of Gross, Francis Gurney Smith, Pancoust, Rogers, Stillé and other leading Philadelphia names, together with Dr. Charcelor, of Virginia; Dr. Davis, of Chicago; Dr. Yandell, President of the Association; Dr. Bronson, of Massachusetts; Davis, of Chicago; Logan, of Call-fornia; Dr. Woodward, United States Army; Noyes, Hodge, McDowell and many others of distinction. Up to the present time the association has given its attention mainly to the discussion of routine business, reading of reports and business of that nature. During yesterday's session the question of admitting ladies to the society was warmly discussed, and one gentleman, in the course of his remarks, paid the highest compliment to the mental attainments of women, their delicacy and refinement, their adaptability and talent, and closed by indulging the hope that, notwithstanding all these facts, "it was his belief that no lady ing all these facts, "it was his belief that no lady would embarrass the Convention by asking a seat on the floor of the house." It is plain, however, that the association desire to testify to the talent in women. It is equally plain that it is the wish of the body that no lady be admitted to the society as a member. The question is not as yet definitely and finally settled, nor will it be without a long and determined struggle on the part of those desiring the companionship of women in their deliberations. The association has been discussing the question for two years past; but it stands to-day where it did in the beginning, except that each succeeding year the companionship of women in their deliberations. The association has been discussing the question for two years past; but it stands to-day where it did in the beginning, except that each succeeding year makes it more difficult of adjustment. The ladies in the profession in this city have successfully fought for admission to the hospital clinics, but pure audacity and a determined purpose had more to do with the successful issue of the fight than any inherent or constitutional rights they may have had in the premises. They have gone into the present fight with a determination to conquer, and it is not impossible they will succeed.

MEDICAL EDUCATION.

The Committee on Medical Education, in view of the great rivalry that exists among the medical colleges throughout the country, and to guard against the perpetration of such unblushing frauds as recently characterized two medical colleges in this city—colleges whose charters have recently been rescinded by the Legislature on account of the publications in the Herallo and other papers—recommend that no more charters be granted to colleges that do not adopt that plan of education laid down by the American Medical Association. The present competition has materially reduced the gross cost of a medical education merely nominal. It is also recommended that the State Legislature be requested to ask for the surrender of the charters of colleges already in operation that do not adopt the plan of education laid down by the association. It is a question upon which many will disagree that reducing the price of diplomas militates to the disadvantage of the student. If a medical student is anxious to become an educated physician he will study just as hard for the possession of a diploma that costs $50 as he will for one that costs $100. A genuine diploma, emanating from a college of good standing, represents the acquisition of certain knowledge. Unless the faculty, in their haste to get rich, award the diploma for the sake of the money alone, there can be nothing urged against the first prize. It was a very able paper, and has attracted the marked notice of the ablest gentlemen in the society.

ANATIONAL MEDICAL LIBRARY.

Dr. George Sutton, of Indiana, read a paper on "Comparative Pathology." In the course of his remarks he strongly urged the establishment of a national medical library. Dr. Parvin, of Indiana, chairman of the Committee on Medical Literature, in his report strongly urged the establishment of such a library, and the preparation of a compendium of the medical literature published in America. Drs. Gross, Hodge and Pancoast, of Philidelphia, were highly complimented for the production of some recent works on physiology. The establishment of a national medical journal is also advised, American physicians should purchase American works, for the theories set forth and practice reported in these works compare favorably with anything of foreign extraction. Dr. Parvin was listened to attentively and frequently applanded.

The Association will adjourn to-morrow.

A Young Lady from New Jersey the Victim-No Clue to the Perpetrator.

Late yesterday afternoon Coroner Young received information that Miss Mary E. Jones, a young lady, eighteen years of age, accomplished and quite prepossessing in personal appearance, had died at the ionse of Mrs. Andrews, 10 Bond street, under sushouse of Mrs. Andrews, 10 Bond street, under suspicious circumstances. An investigation showed that about three weeks ago Miss Jones, who lived in Lodi, N. J., came to this city to visit Mrs. Andrews, who was a very particular friend. Subsequently Mrs. Andrews, who is a highly respectable lady, made certain discoveries in regard to her guest which induced her to believe she was suffering from disease of some kind, and finally asked Mary about it. She denied that anything was the matter, but Mrs. Andrews, who seemed very persistent, renewed her inquiries, and a few days ago Mary reluctantly confessed that she had taken a great deal of medicine with the view of causing a miscarriage, but falling in that had had an instrumental operation performed; but when, where or by whom the unfortunate girl utterly refused to tell. Upon Mrs. Andrews threatening Mary to inform her parents and have her taken home she implored her not to do so, at the same time saying she would rather jump overboard and drown herself than to have her parents and friends know of her shame. Mary seemed to get along very well without a physician, which she refused to have, till Thursday night, when she grew suddenly worse, and died early yesterday morning.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Coroner Marsh made a post-mortem examination of the body and found unmistakable evidence of the use of instruments, and in his judgment the fatal operation was performed about ten days ago, the deceased at that time having been about six months advanced in pregnancy. Death was due to metro-peritonitis, the result of an abortion.

Coroner Young gave a certificate of death and last evening the relations of Miss Jones removed her remains to New Jersey for interment. In the meantime Captain Byrnes of the Fifteenth precinct, who has the case in charge, is making strenuous efforts to learn by whom the crime was committed, but owing to the reteence of Miss Jones he has not the least clue to work upon. It is believed by some that, inasmuch as deceased was almost an entire stra picious circumstances. An investigation showed

AFFAIRS AT THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD.

The Brooklyn Navy Yard never presented a more quiet appearance than it does at the present time. Recent discharges has left the workships almost vacant, and the ring of the hammers upon the anvils, the clatter in the various departments and the strokes of the ship-carpenters upon the timbers is rarely heard.

rarely neard.

The appearance on every hand is peaceful, but how ong it will remain so it is difficult to say. It is an

The appearance on every hand is peaceful, but how long it will remain so it is difficult to say. It is an old adage, "In time of peace prepare for war," and it may be possible that in a few days the yard will present quite a different aspect from what it did yesterday. The authorities at Washington may deem it advisable to fit up what vessels are now at the yard for active service. A budget of orders from the department at Washington would not create a great deal of surprise among it to move the Brookiyn Navy Yard, and would be halled with joy by the thousands of mechanics who are now out of employment.

There is a war cloud in the horizon, and it might possibly be deemed advisable on the part of the government to fit out the vessels-of-war as a precautionary measure, if not an actual necessity. New life could soon be infused in all the departments, but the fitting out of vessels is not the work of a day or week. There are two or three vessels which have been on the stocks for the last seven years and now have an infection known as the "dry rot," and if the proper remedies are not applied soon the places they have occupied for so long a time will know them no more. Were they to be put in the water now they would leak like sieves.

The iron-clacs exist at the presert time only as skeletons, not a plate of iron being upon them. They lie in the ship houses.

The Hartford, a second rate s'æam sloop-of-war, twenty-one guns, might be got ready for active service in three months.

The Minnesota a first rate/steam frigate, forty-three guns, has been bauled off and now lies in the strenm.

The Roanoke, fron clad, three turrets, first rate, six guns, might be put in order in three or four

The Roanove, from the put in order in three or four months.

But it is impossible to say when work will be commenced on these vessels. Retrenchment has been the order so long that any departure from it would at once give rise to the supposition that there was at last a necessity for it.

THE EMIGRATION HEAD MONEY ..

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-Your editorial imputing swindling by the Com-missioners of Emigration does them a great injustice as regards the head money. The Commissioners themselves had it reduced from $2 50 to $1 50, in the hope of benefiting the emigrants by a 31.50, in the hope of benefiting the emigrants by a corresponding reduction in the price of passage, which the ship owners promised. After a year's trial there has been no reduction made by the ship owners, and the Commissioners find that the expense of supporting the emigrants actually costs $1.85 per capita, and they only ask for an increase of fifty cents. In the matter of suggesting an expert to examine the accounts of the Commissioners you also do them injustice, for even the fault-seeking committee from Albany did not insinuate this.
